

Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company

Dear Volunteer Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member within the Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company. We would like to ensure that the responsibility of becoming a member is completely understood as this is not something to enter into lightly.

Being a volunteer firefighter can be a rewarding, as well as a time consuming responsibility. It involves a lot of training and a lot of time away from home. It is something that each applicant should give a great deal of thought to, before making the decision to become a volunteer. We suggest that you discuss the possibility thoroughly with the significant people in your life and weigh all of your other personal and professional obligations before making a decision to become a member. If, after careful consideration, you are still committed to becoming a volunteer, we welcome and encourage you in this endeavor.

Listed below are the criteria for membership, as well as a step-by-step explanation to assist you as you go through the application process. If at any time you have questions, please feel free to contact us.

We presently have 2 types of membership available: Junior Member and Probationary Member. Our members must live within the town to be able to respond to emergency calls in a timely manner.

Thank you for your consideration in becoming a member of the Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company.

Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company

Criteria for Membership

All applicants must meet the following criteria in order to be considered for membership:

- Must be at least 18 years of age to apply for Probationary Member.
- Must be between the ages of 15 - 17 to apply for Junior Member.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or be eligible to work in the United States
- Must not have pled guilty to, entered a plea of no contest, or have been convicted of any misdemeanor within the past three years
- Must never have pled guilty to, entered a plea of no contest, or have been convicted of any felony, regardless of time span
- Must live within the Town of Simsbury

The Application Process

1. Submit the following items to the Chief of Personnel. (Note: all items must be submitted in order to be considered for membership):

- SVFC Membership Application
- Copy of all certificates deemed relevant to this position (previous fire certifications, EMR, EMT, .etc).
- A copy of a valid driver's license and social security card.

2. Upon receipt of the application and supporting documentation, a background check will be conducted. (Note: Please read the Agency Privacy Requirements for Noncriminal Justice Applicants, Noncriminal Justice Applicants Privacy Rights and FBI DOJ Privacy Act Statement attached.)

3. The applicant will then be contacted to schedule an interview with the personnel committee.

4. Once the interview has been completed and the personnel committee approves the applicant, a pre employment medical examination (paid by the department) will be scheduled.

5. Upon completion of the pre-employment medical examination the applicant will be notified if they have been accepted or declined for membership by the Chief of Personnel.

Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company

Considerations before submitting Your Application

1. The Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company is a volunteer organization. The membership and firefighters do not receive compensation for their services.
2. The firefighters of Simsbury receive training on Monday nights throughout the year. Training (drills) are held between the hours of 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM. A Probationary Member must attend 65% of the scheduled drills and meeting and 25% of all alarms except silent alarms. If the member exceeds 40% of the required alarms during the period rated, their Drill / meeting requirement will drop to 60%.
3. A Probationary Member is required to achieve certification to the State of Connecticut Firefighter I level within 12 months of becoming a member. This training is paid for by the department. This training requires a larger time commitment by the Probationary Member during their first year. Classes are offered through the Hartford County Regional Fire School and offered at a minimum twice a year so the Probationary Members may schedule attending classes at a convenient time. These classes run on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:30 PM until 9:30 PM and Saturdays from 8:00 am until 4:00 PM and are located at the Hartford County Regional Fire School in Windsor Locks, CT.
4. From time to time the members of the Simsbury Volunteer Fire Company are asked to help out with activities that are not in the emergency role. This includes fire prevention activities, social events within the fire company, fund raising, community events and other events where the fire company will be represented. Many of these events will include your family, friends and the fire department family.
5. Probationary firefighters are also required to respond to a minimum of 25% of call outs. This requirement is easily achievable for the firefighter that works away from the Town. The fire company understands that a volunteer is not available 24 hours a day and has additional commitments in life. We ask that you respond when you can and have set this minimum to ensure both our investment and yours is fulfilled when aiding the community in the event of a fire or emergency.

Some Benefits of Volunteering

1. A tax abatement is offered to volunteer firefighters beginning after two years of service and is prorated there after up to one thousand dollars. (Attendance requirements apply for eligibility)
 - 2 years of service - $500.00
 - 5 years of service - $1000.00
 - After 25 years of service you would be eligible for a lifetime tax abatement for as long as you own property in the town of Simsbury.
2. A volunteer firefighter pension program. Volunteer firefighters are eligible to be enrolled in the program after completing five years of service. They will be 100% vested after ten years of service. The rate of the benefit is determined by a dollar amount per month per year of service with a maximum of 40 years service. (Attendance requirements apply for eligibility)
3. Discounted gym membership at participating health clubs. (Attendance requirements apply for eligibility)

Agency Privacy Requirements for Noncriminal Justice Applicants

Authorized governmental and non-governmental agencies/officials that conduct a national :fingerprint-based criminal history record check on an applicant for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as a job or license, immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption) are obligated to ensure the applicant is provided certain notice and other information and that the results of the check are handled in a manner that protects the applicant's privacy.

- Officials must provide to the applicant written notice¹ that his/her fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- Officials using the FBI criminal history record (if one exists) to make a determination of the applicant's suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide the applicant the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- Officials must advise the applicant that procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of an FBI criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- Officials should not deny the job, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record until the applicant has been afforded a reasonable time to correct or complete the record or has declined to do so.
- Officials must use the criminal history record solely for the purpose requested and cannot disseminate the record outside the receiving department, related agency, or other authorized entity.² The FBI has no objection to officials providing a copy of the applicant's FBI criminal history record to the applicant for review and possible challenge when the record was obtained based on positive fingerprint identification. If agency policy permits, this courtesy will save the applicant the time and additional FBI fee to obtain his/her record directly from the FBI by following the procedures found at 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34. It will also allow the officials to make a more timely determination of the applicant's suitability. Each agency should establish and document the process/procedures it utilizes for how/when it gives the applicant notice, what constitutes "a reasonable time" for the applicant to correct or complete the record, and any applicant appeal process that is afforded the applicant. Such documentation will assist State and/or FBI auditors during periodic compliance reviews on use of criminal history records for noncriminal justice purposes.

Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for a job or license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification³ by the Simsbury Fire District and or Simsbury Vol. Fire Company that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the job, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.⁴
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.⁵
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks>.
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI at the same address as provided above. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)

Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Privacy Act Statement

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN). Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Additional Information: The requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application-investigation will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice in the Federal Register describing any systems(s) of records in which that agency may also maintain your records, including the authorities, purposes, and routine uses for the system(s).
