11. Unfinished Business - None

12: New Business – Nominating Committee was discussed. The committee will consist of the same as in previous years. The six Captains and the Chair of the commissioners.

The siren discussion commenced with Matt giving an approximate cost per station to repair or replace each station's siren. Whelan is the only manufacturer still around so Chief Myers asked if there was anyone else that could do the repair. Due to the overall cost, we must go out for bids. Matt was requested to investigate options.

Preparation has begun on the 2025/2026 Budget. A budget workshop meeting is being scheduled for March 13th at 7:00pm at the Main Station. With so many variances forecasted, such as a 4% town tax increase, health insurance increases, grand list decrease, car tax questions, the need for this workshop is imperative. A formal notification will be issued.

Cell tower income was discussed by Matt.

The Awards dinner was discussed. A thank you was given to all who made it a remarkable success. A suggestion was made and agreed upon to include spouses of deceased past members for this dinner in the future.

13. Executive Session - Entered at 7:48 and exited at 8:26

14. Meeting adjourned at 8:26 pm

Respectfully submitted,

John J. Solury Sr.
Clerk
